Answering this kind of question

- Look at the diagram and the text quickly. The information you need is often in one part, for example only in one paragraph. Find this part of the text quickly. Read it carefully to find each answer
- Don't forget to write your answers on the answer sheet, not just on the diagram
- If you need to use no more than three words, then don't use more. Remember that this might not include small words like and or the if they are necessary
